

SHANNON REED

Shannon Reed is the Public Affairs Manager for IRWD. She manages media relations, community outreach, conservation marketing, crisis communications, and website/social media development. Shannon just launched IRWD's new website and enhanced social media program. She has 16 years public relations, public affairs, public involvement and community relations experience. Prior to IRWD, she has worked at the San Diego County Water Authority and Katz & Associates